"Food, wine, family & friends...what could be better?"

Wouldn't it be nice to leave the wine selection and purchasing to someone who really understands wine?

The European Wine Table

Jacqueline Chambliss

After 10 years of being in the Technology Industry I decided to leave and pursue my interest in wine. That pursuit has led me to the Master of Wine designation I am currently seeking through the Wine & Spirit Education Trust (WSET) in England. I am 3rd Level wine education certified through WSET thus far, and am excited to teach about wine for all who want to learn.

I've always been intrigued, also, with the easy going European life-style. Food, wine, family and friends seems to be a priority in their lives.

Through wine education, family and friends, food and wine can be a priority in your lives too!

Welcome,

Jacqueline Chambliss

offers wine consultation and wine buying services for people who just don't have the time or the expanded wine knowledge to select wines for their dinner parties and special occasions. Our Wine and Spirit Education Trust, (WSET), educated consultants are extremely knowledgeable about wine regions and wine styles. Our wine consultants will;

- Come to you and consult with you on the types of wines to have with your event based on the foods that will be served.
- We will go to the best wine shop or shops and select the best wines for the event based on your pre-determined wine budget.
- The selected wines will be cased and put aside for you for convenient pick-up.
- For your event each guest will receive a wine informational card for each wine, this will include information about the wines' region, wines' style and the food it was paired with.

It's that simple! Never again do you have to worry about what wines to get for your special occasion. The European Wine Table will do the selecting for you.
